DEFAULTING TELLER ARRESTED BY POLICE

Found In Apartment House In New York City.

HAD SHAVED OFF MOUSTACHE

After Several Days' Persistent Seacrh The Man Who Robbed Trust Company of $96,000 Is Run to Earth by Officers of the Law.

New York, July 8.—Chester B. Runyan, the defaulting teller of the Windsor Trust company, was arrested in New York Friday, and $56,410 of the money stolen from the bank was recovered.

Runyan was founud in the apartment of Mrs. Laura M. Carter, of 819 West 144th street, where he had been since he walked out of the bank on Saturday with all the money in the teller's vault packed in his suit case.

Mrs. Carter had reported to the police that Runyan was in her flat. Five detectives at once accompanied Mrs. Carter to the house.

As the detectives entered Runyan was standing before a chiffonier. He turned on the officers with a revolver in his hand, but when the detectives rushed at his, he dropped the revolver and submitted to being handcuffed, saying: "The jig is up."

When asked where the money was, he said part of it was in the suit case, and the rest was in a drawer of the chiffonier.

Mrs. Carter and her negro maid, Mary Duncan, were also arrested.

Shaved His Moustache Off.

At the station Runyan said that he had been in the flat since Saturday, laughing at the efforts of the police to locate him. He said he had shaved off his mustache, and was letting his beard grow as a disguise. When questioned about the whereabouts of the balance of the money missing from the bank—the sum lost was said to be more than $96,000—he stated that he had been speculating, and had lost heavily, and intimated that Mrs. Carter might know something about any money that was missing.

Mrs. Carter indignantly denied that she had any of the money, and told Runyan that she had betrayed him to the police because he had not given her money, as he had promised.

Runyan stated that he had given Mrs. Carter $15,000, but this she denied.

Mrs. Carter was closely questioned as to her acquaintance with Runyan. She said that she first met him on the street. Finally, she said, he agreed to furnish a flat for her and give her $50 a week. The flat was secured, and she moved in two weeks ago. After that, she said she saw little of Runyan until Saturday.

New York, July 8.—The Atlanta Birmingham and Atlantic railroad has sold to N. W. Harris & Co., $1,700,000 5 per cent equipment bonds, secured by ownership under agreements of sale of 1,200 forty-ton coal cars, 500 thirty-ton box cars, 300 thirty-ton flat cars, 25 locomotives and 30 cabooses.

The coast of this equipment is approximately $2,150,000 of which the railroad will pay $426,000 in cash, leaving an equity of 25 per cent in excess of the par value of the equipment bonds.

The project has been financed privately. The stock is closely held by a group of prominent New York and Boston capitalists.

The same interests who control the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic own the whole capital stocks of the Brunswick and New York, and also the whole capital stock of the Birmingham Coal company and the Birmingham Iron company.

These companies own 42,000 acres of coal and iron ore lands in the Birmingham district. The iron company is now producing 4,000 tons of pig per month.

LINEMAN'S HORRIBLE FATE.

Electrocuted In Presence of a Large Crowd—Head Almost Severed.

Brunswick, Ga., July 8.—J. F. Barker, aged 22 years, a lineman of the Bell Telephone construction force while climbing a telephone pole Friday met a horrible death by electrocution.

Barker touched one of the primary wires of the electric light company with his foot and the lead cable of the telephone company. He fell against the pole and then backwards on the electric light wire. The 2,500 volts alternating current cut its way through the man's neck, half severing his head.

Foreman Melton, of the gang, hastily climbed the pole and lowered the man by a hand rope.

Barker lived two hours, but at no time was conscious. In falling, the left ankle came into contact with one of the power current wires. The man's body swayed as the heavy alternating current passed through it and the blood poured from the wound in the neck. It was a sickening sight for the large crowd which had gathered.

Among the killed was the rebel chief, Schaldy. The Spanish troops at Melila have been reinforced so as to meet any emergency.

GRIM ROLL OF DEATH CONTINUES TO GROW

Fatalities That Occurred on the Fourth of July

ALREADY TOTALS FIFTY-NINE

This Death Roll Promises to Mount Higher as the Days Go By—Number of Injured Now Reaches the Large Figures of 3,807.

Chicago, July 8.—With the grim returns still coming in, the number of Fourth of July casualties for 1907 at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, had eclipsed all records made by the Tribune in the last nine years.

The total number of dead at that hour was fifty-nine. This figure was eight more than a year ago at the same hour, and was only equalled twice before in the nine years—in 1900 and 1905. This total eclipses all records in the nine years, the highest heretofore reported at 3 a. m. July 6 being 3,683, in 1903.

As usual, fireworks claimed the largest number of victims, of cannon, gunpowder, fireworks and toy pistols are in relative proportion.

The death roll promises to mount higher as the days go by. Already tetanus is beginning its deadly work, the death of one victim from lockjaw being reported.

New oYrk, which on Thursday headed the death roster, added another victim to its total Friday, bringing the number up to eleven. But even with the increase, Pittsburg passed the big metropolis in the grim roll, reporting twelve deaths up to 3 o'clock Saturday morning.

BANK MESSENGER

Lets Himself Be Classed as Robber When He Himself was Robbed.

New York, July 8.—Inspectors of the United States Guaranty company are searching for H. J. Wilson to redeem him in spite of himself, for Wilson ran away from his responsibilities and let himself be classed as a bank robber when, in fact, he was the one robbed.

Wilson, described as a plain plodding man of 45, was recently employed by the First National bank of No. 1 Wall street as a messenger. He disappeared last Monday after making collections aggregating a little more than $30,000. On Tuesday the bank received a bulky envelope containing $34,718 in checks and drafts. There was no accompanying explanation, but the bank soon ascertained that it was the bulk of Wilson's collections.

Then a friend received a pitiful letter from Wilson in which he recited that after making his collections and while on a street car, pickpockets had relieved him of the bank's checks and money, and that, mortified with shame and possessed with the fear that the bank officials would believe him a thief, he had determined to disappear until he could make up his mind just what he ought to do.

Investigation by the bank revealed the probable truth of Wilson's story and also developed the fact that the pickpocket secured $1,716 in cash.

The thief, as is often done in such cases, had the checks and drafts returned as they were useless to him.

Now that the truth is known, the bank officials hope Wilson will pluck up courage and return.

Father of 41 Children.

Elberton, Ga., July 8.—Elijah Edwards, a negro tenant near Point Peter, Ga., is the father of 41 children, of whom all are living. He had 23 by his first wife, and 18 by his second. He is hale and hearty, and some of his white friends intend asking for one of President Roosevelt's medals for him.

TILLMAN CHALLENGES DOLLIVER

Gentlemen from Iowa Angers South Carolina Senator.

Jackson, Mich., July 8.—Angered because Senator Dolliver took exceptions to his views on the race question, Senator Benjamin Tillman, of South Carolina, who delivered an address here on the Fourth of July, Friday issued a challenge to Dolliver to fight a duel.

Tillman asserted that only by this method could his honor be vindicated. Tillman made his usual speech before a large and enthusiastic audience, and at the close he requested all who coincided with his views to stand up. Everybody in the audience stood.

It is said that when Dolliver got into town he immediately began to abuse Tillman. He ridiculed every statement the southern senator made.

Tillman, who is the guest of acquaintances in a nearby lake resort, hurried into town and inserted a notice in the evening papers in which he stated he had been grossly insulted; that in the south the way those things are adjusted is by the duel route.

Dolliver read the story in the newspaper and met Tillman in the lobby of the Osteo hotel. A stormy interview was the result, and it was only through the efforts of bystanders that serious trouble was averted. Dolliver said he was not fighting duels, and Tillman branded him a coward for not being able to back up his statements, and he declared that the time would come when he could square things with the gentleman from Iowa.

JAPS SHOWS AIR OF BRAVADO.

Leading Paper at Tokio on the Present Situation.

Tokio, July 6.—The Nichi Nichi, in a leader says:

"The American feeling toward Japan appears to have reached almost an hysterical stage in their apprehension that the resolution adopted by the Japanese chamber of commerce is an intention to boycott the American goods. An explanation of such attitude may be sought in their own fear regarding the final outcome of the San Francisco affair. A complete solution of the question without leaving the least element of difference between the two countries, is a pressing necessity."

Conversations with those whose opinions are worth attention follow exactly in the same line.

BRYAN WOULD SEND MAGNATES TO PRISON

Vital Question Before Country Would Then Be Solved.

SPEECH MADE AT BANQUET

Says Roosevelt and Others Are Bringing to a Successful Issue the Principles Which He Has All Along Advocated.

Chicago, July 8—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Warsaw says:

"Send John D. Rockefeller, a dozen other trust magnates to prison for a long term of years, and one of the most vital questions before the people of this country will have been solved," declared William J. Bryan Friday at a banquet given in his honor by Dr. Sol C. Dickey, president of the Winonane Lake assembly.

"President Roosevelt and others are now bringing to a successful issue the principles and ideas I advocated seventeen years ago." Mr. Bryan continued:

"This is praticularly true as regards the tariff. The president is composing my future speeches for me."

Mr. Bryan took a fling at the president's cabinet, saying that there was not a man in it who agreed with Roosevelt. Referring to the controversy between the United States and Japan, Mr. Bryan, who during his trip around the world visited the eastern empire, said a little more backbone at Washington would settle the differences for all time to come without a conflict between the two nations.

"Japan will follow the path of Spain and otner nations once powerful unless there is a religious awakening in that country," he said. "There is one thing that can save Japan, and that is the spread of Christianity."

IMPORTANT VICTORY WON.

Conference of Live Stock Exchange Men and Packers.

Chicago, July 8.—Representatives of live stock exchanges throughout the west in conference with representatives of all the big packers have won what they considered an important victory, doing away substantially with the proposition of the packers that all cattle be received from shippers subject to post mortem examination. This proposition, which has been fought by all the live stock exchanges, will now apply only to dairy cows and to common canning cows. The packers agreed to pass on all range cattle. This will mean a large proportion of receipts at the big stock yards.

The live stock exchanges represented were those of St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Sioux Cit, Milwaukee, Buffalo and Omaha.

Iowa Supreme Court Ruling.

Topeka, Kans., July 8.—The state supreme court here holds that railroads are not liable for damages for injuries by accidents which happen to persons employed by express companies on trains in cars wherein the express company assumes all risk of injury or death to its employees. The decision was rendered in the case of a woman who sued the Santa Fe company to recover damages on account of the loss of her husband, an express messenger, who was killed in a wreck.

Imports and Exports.

London, July 8.—The June statement of the board of trade shows a decrease of $855,000 in imports and an increase of $12,359,800 exports. In imports the decrease was in food and manufactured goods, but cotton from America increased nearly half a million dollars. In exports the increase was principally $5,000,000 in coal and $5,000,000 in manufactured goods.

Indications for Peaceful Adjustment Takes Brighter Aspect.

Chicago, July 8.—Prospects for a peaceful settlement of the commercial telegraphers' strike brightened with the arrival of two members of the executive committee of the union and further conferences between the officials of the company and United States Labor Commissioner Neill.

Through the agency of the commissioner, the telegraphers had been able to get their case before the officials of the Western Union, especially in reference to the discharge of Operator William Main for alleged misuse of the company's wires. If the commissioner's investigation substantiates the charges that have been made against Main by the officials of the Western Union, the union will probably let the matter drop.

REMARKABLE OPERATION.

Man Who Had Spinal Cord Severed By Bullet, Has Recovered.

New York, July 8.—Alexander Adrehi, who had his spinal cord severed by a bullet four years ago, will soon be discharged from the city hospital on Blackwell's Island, entirely well.

This case has attracted the attention of the medical fraternity owing to the remarkable success of the operation which was performed by the late Dr. George Ryerson Fowler on May 9, 1903.

The ends of the several cords were drawn together. Adrehi was shot in the back during a street fight in Brooklyn. When he was taken to the hospital the lower part of the body was completely paralyzed.

Less than a month after the operation the patient was able to move his toes and the following November he was able to sit up. After awhile he was rigged up in a cage chair, something like that used by babies when they are learning to walk. During the winter of 1905, he began to feel sensations in his body below the wound. Twenty-six months after the injury he was able to stand by resting his hands on a chair. Adrehi can now walk up and down stairs without the use of cruutches or braces.

This is said to be the only operation of its kind to have resulted successfully.

THE YOUNG MAN'S CHANCE.

Great Army of New Telegraphers Will Be Needed by Railroads.

Chicago, July 8.—The Record-Herald says: Several thousand young men who are willing to prepare themselves can have an opportunity during the next few months of entering the railway service in a branch that has produced the greatest number of higher officials.

The railroads of the country are face to face with the task of securing at least six thousand telegraph operators and possibly double that number during the next nine months. This great army of new telegraphers is necessitated by the new law which limits the hours of labor in this branch of the railway service.

There is not a railway management in the United States that knows where or how they are going to get the large additional force needed. The fact is that they are not in the country, and the problem is to create a supply.

MONDAY'S STORM WAS VERY SEVERE

One Man Reported Partially Paralyzed from Lightning.

LADY'S HOUSE WAS STRUCK

Lightning Entered a Chimney to Her Home, Spread Through the Rooms Down Stairs, and Slightly Disarranged Everything.

A terrific thunderstorm, accompanied by the usual lightning, passed over this city at a late hour Monday afternoon, considerable inconveniencing the public, and causing considerable trouble in some quarters, the most serious being the injury to William Irving, a colored man employed on the road gang a short distance east of the city, who was painfully if not seriously injured, the stroke having partially paralyzed the right side.

Irving, with other men, was at work on the Rochelle road when the thunderstorm came up. The storm was accompanied by heavy rain, and the men took shelter under trees. While Irving was standing under a heavy pine the lightning struck the tree, running down and affecting the man in the shoulder. He was at once rendered unconscious, and was brought to this city, where he received medical attention, and is now resting as easily as could be expected under the circumstances.

There was also a lively scene in East Gainesville. The home of Mrs. Hellen T. Chesnut, East Magnolia street, was struck, the bolt going down a chimney. The fire followed the course of the chimney, burning carpets and rugs in several rooms, the bolt having been directed by the draught from open doors. The chimney was practically wrecked, and the interior of the home was somewhat damaged. It was fortunate that no one was in the room at that time.

These were the only calamities reported, but the storm was severe, and it would not be surprising if other damages would be reported later.

Clara Jones, Demented Negro Woman, Was Transferred to Chattahooche.

Clara Jones, the unfortunate negro woman who was a few days ago adjudged insane, was taken by an attendant Monday to the Hospital for the Insane at Chattahoochee.

There is now in jail the demented negro, Si Bailey, who was apprehended near Grove Park Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Arch Zetrouer and brought to this city. No commission has been appointed in his case.

Including Bailey, there have been six cases of lunacy in this county within the past thirty days, and it may be surprising to state that they have cost the county nearly $300.

SCALY ERUPTIONS COVERED HIS BODY

Itched Constantly—Scratched Until Blood Flowed—Suffered 10 Years—Doctors and Medicines Were Fruitless—Tries Cuticura and Is Completely Cured

BY THREE BOXES OF CUTICURA OINTMENT

"When I was about nine years old small sores appeared on each of my lower limbs. I scratched them with a brass pin and shortly afterwards both of those limbs became so sore that I could scarcely walk. When I had been suffering for about a month the sores began to heal, but small scaly eruptions appeared where the sores had been. From that time onward I was troubled by such severe itching that, until I became accustomed to it, I would scratch the sores until the blood began to flow. This would stop the itching for a few days; but scaly places would appear again and the itching would accompany them. After I suffered about ten years I made a renewed effort to effect a cure. The eruptions by this time had appeared on every part of my body except my face and hands. The best doctor in my native county advised me to use arsenic in small doses and a salve. I then used to bathe the sores in a mixture which gave almost intolerable pain. In addition I used other remedies, such as iodine, sulphur, zinc salve, ——'s Salve, —— Ointment, and in fact I was continually giving some remedy a fair trial, never using less than one or two boxes or bottles. All this was fruitless. Finally my hair began to fall out and I was rapidly becoming bald. I used ——'s ——, but it did no good. A few months after, having used almost everything else, I thought I would try Cuticura Ointment, having previously used Cuticura Soap and being pleased with it. After using three boxes I was completely cured, and my hair was restored, after fourteen years of suffering and an expenditure of at least $50 to $60 in vainly endeavoring to find a cure. I shall be glad to write to any one who may be interested in my cure. B. Hiram Mattingly, Vermillion, S. Dak., Aug. 18, 1906."

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Ed Weston left yesterday for Ocala and other points on business.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Tousey have returned from Jacksonville, where they have been on a visit to their son, W. B. Tousey.

Walter Bryant of Micanopy was in the city yesterday, and his numerous friends were glad to welcome him again. Mr. Bryant is now holding a responsible position in the sales department of the big Rhineaur store in Ocala.

Misses Maud Lewis and Grace Wolf, two of Alachua's popular young school teachers, left yesterday for Wilcox, where they will immediately open the Cherry Sink summer school. This is one of the most successful summer schools in the county, and it goes without saying that under the direction of these young ladies will make a fine showing at the end of the season. Miss Lewis was a teacher in the Gainesville Graded and High School at the last term.

TO BEGIN WORK AT ONCE.

O. Petre Will Start at Once Laying of Sidewalk in Palatka.

O. Petre left Sunday for Palatka, where he has secured the contract for the laying of the granolithic sidewalks, recently let by that city in competition with a number of contractors from every section of the country.

The contract calls for about three miles of granolithic pavements, the same as have been laid in Gainesville, though in many instances not quite so wide. Mr. Petre won easily on a bid of $1.25 per square yard, which was thirty-five cents more than he has been receiving for his contract here.

On Saturday Martin McHugh, superintendent of the work, with a dozen or more men, left Gainesville, and work will begin in Palatka in dead earnest at once, a quantity of material having been received. The first work to be constructed there will be the walk around the elegant city hall, after which the walks will be extended in various directions from this base.

As a cement sidewalk builder Mr. Petre has made a big success, and the Palatka folks are fortunate that he secured the contract.

CARELESS SHOOTING WOUNDED FINE MARE

Discharge of Firearms Continued With Serious Results.

MARE DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED

Stray Bullet from a Careless Marksman Struck Animal in Fleshy Part of Thigh, and It May Cause Loss of Mare, Which is Valued Highly.

The Sun called attention a few days ago to the habit of reckless shooting in East Gainesville, certain boys firing their rifles at will in an endeavor to kill harmless and innocent birds, and at one time seriously hazarding the life of one resident of that section of the city, the bullet whistling by his ear.

But the most serious result yet from this promiscuous and careless practice is the dangerous wounding of a fine mare, the property of J. B. Padgett, which was struck in the fleshy part of the thigh while grazing in a pasture in East Gainesville Thursday, and from the effect of which the animal is now in a most precarious condition.

J. R. Howell, superintendent of stock of the stable of W. R. Thomas & Co., and a veterinarian of experience, has been attending the animal, and Monday reported that the thigh was badly swollen, and that he feared mortification, or blood poison. The animal is suffering a great deal of pain, but every effort is being made to save her life, as she is of high pedigreed stock, and very valuable.

The time is coming when these careless users of firearms will be apprehended, and then there will be "something doing" in the Mayor's court.

MADE A FINE PURCHASE.

T. R. Pickett, Will Engage in Mill Business in Suwannee County.

T. R. Pickett of Newberry was among those who spent Monday in Gainesville.

Mr. Pickett has for several years been engaged in the manufacture of lumber near Half Moon, in the West End, and has been quite successful. He has about worked out the forests of that section, however, with the result that he has closed down this mill, and has made a purchase from the Suwannee Lumber Company of a valuable tract of timber land, comprising 6,000 acres, together with an up-to-date sawmill plant, in Suwannee county, six miles to the westward of Live Oak, and will at once assume charge of the premises.

Mr. Pickett is a thorough mill man, and will make a fine success of his new purchase.

The Temperance Meeting.

The union meeting of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches, held at the court house Sunday evening, was well attended, and those present enjoyed the meeting very much, being deeply impressed with the proceedings.

The meeting was in the nature of a temperance rally, being held under the auspices of the National Anti-Saloon League. The speaker was Dr. G. W. Young of Kentucky, superintendent of the National Anti-Saloon League, who delivered a stirring sermon on temperance—or at least, intemperance and its evils. Rev. W. R. Lambert of Jacksonville, State superintendent of the league, was also present.

At the conclusion of the sermon nearly $300 was raised by subscription for the support of the league, which the speaker declared was doing a good and effective work.

EX-GOV. FLEMING ON PENSIONS.

In The Times-Union of July 7th Hon. Francis P. Fleming, former Governor of Florida, and one of the most highly honored and beloved Confederate veterans in the State, has the following to say regarding the new pension law:

"I presume no one will question my loyalty to the interests of the Confederate veteran. I devote no inconsiderable part of my time to promoting the welfare of those who have found a refuge in the Confederate Home in this city. It is because I hold so sacred the honor of those survivors of the "lost cause" that I am impelled to comment upon the pension law enacted by the Legislature which has just adjourned.

"The first Confederate pension act of the State of Florida was passed in 1885, providing a pension of $5 a month, and was limited to those unfit to perform manual labor by reason of wounds received in line of duty and to whom such pension was necessary for support. This act was amended, or new acts passed from time to time, somewhat increasing the amount and enlarging the class, finally extending to all those disabled from any cause—but there was always a property or income qualification. In other words, it was the wisdom of all Legislatures, acting on the pension law, except the last, to provide aid only to those who, by reason of physical disability and indigency, stood in need of it. The last Legislature makes no such limitation, but provides, besides those suffering from disability, that all who are sixty years of age shall be entitled to a pension. The war ended forty-two years ago, so that a person who was eighteen years of age at that time is now sixty years of age; it will, therefore, readily appear that the sixty-year provision will take in nearly all the Confederate veterans in the State, and in four years will take in practically all.

"The act also provides for the levy of a State tax of four mills, which under the present assessment, with due allowance for the usual insolvent list, will yield a sum of $500,000 per annum, an amount more than sufficient a few years ago to have run the whole State Government. The levy, of course, bears upon the poor widow and other persons of small means, as well as the wealthy. By what process of reasoning the Legislature came to the conclusion that it was proper to tax the people of the State to pay pensions to Confederate soldiers, without regard to their property income or ability to earn a living, is difficult to understand. God has blessed me with the means of earning a support for myself and family, and I know of numbers of Confederate veterans who are wealthy and many others who make good livings. Why, I ask in all reason, should the taxpayers of the State be required to pay a four-mill tax to enable me, as well as others who do not need it for support, to put my hand in the public crib and draw out $100 a year, on the sole ground that I served in the Confederate army, performing nothing more than my duty? It may be answered that I need not apply for a pension. That is true, but the Legislature, which gives me the legal right to the pension, can take no credit if I do not avail myself of it. Undoubtedly many who do not need it will avail themselves of the law.

"I do not disfavor a pension to the veteran who is indigent and whose physical condition is such as to prevent him from earning a living, but, giving the Legislature credit for the best intentions, in my opinion this pension law is wrong and tends to bring Confederate veterans into disfavor and to lower him from the high standard which he should occupy. Let us hope the next Legislature will correct this evil and eliminate from the pension rolls all those who do not need such State aid."

A number of the members of the Legislature, during consideration of the pension bill, gave vent to the same expressions as those voiced by Governor Fleming, but they were in such a great minority that they were unable to amend the bill in any particular. They favored liberal pensions to the old soldiers and their widows who need assistance, but were opposed to a "service" pension, for granting which to Federal soldiers the South has complained against the North ever since the war ended. But those in charge of the bill refused to permit any change to be made in its provisions, contending that only those veterans who were in actual need would take advantage of it. How far they were wrong has already been demonstrated, many well-to-do old veterans contending that as they are taxed to pay the increased pensions they are justly entitled to have their share of the fund.

"Hon. Frank Adams," says The Times-Union, "who is spoken of as a candidate for Senator, has set an example which some others might follow by resigning his position as State Senator from the Thirtieth district. He does not purpose to hold one position while running for another, we understand as the purpose of his resignation. With the consideration Mr. Adams has always shown for the body of voters who have kept him in the State Senate for thirteen years—on account of the high value of his service—he thus early sends in his resignation effective on the election of his successor at the regular November election next year. He has been twice president of the State Senate during those thirteen years, another tribute to his ability. This resignation sets an example which no other candidate for office can avoid following without injury to his standing among the people."

The cost of printing material, paper stock and labor continues to advance. Type we once bought for 48 cents per pound is now 62 cents; newspaper that sold for 3 cents per pound is now 5 and 6 cents; a printer now sells his labor for any old price he wants to ask, and it's hard to get them then; yet the subscription price of the majority of papers are the same, and in most instances a better paper is being printed than ever before. What are we to do? Raise the price of subscription and have the paper stopped, charge more for job work and have it sent out of town to printers who will do the foreign work cheap to get it? Looks kinder dubuis, doesn't it.—Dunnellon Advocate.

The Sun deeply sympathizes with A. P. Jordan, editor of The Punta Gorda Herald, in the death of his beloved wife, which occurred on the 7th inst. after ten weeks' illness. Mrs. Jordan formerly was Miss Agnes V. Crenshaw and was born in Sumter county, Florida, December 22, 1865; married in 1883 to Adrian P. Jordan. Her entire life was spent in Florida, except two years at Thomasville, Ga. Besides her husband she leaves four sons and one daughter, the latter and three sons just grown. Mrs. Jordan was a devoted Christian woman, leader in social and club life of Punta Gorda, and will be greatly missed.

Senator Foraker and his friends have again notified the administration that they are in no hurry to get out of the trouble zone.

Abe Hummel is said to be quite happy at Blackwell's. It is a good thing when a man finds his place in life.

Our county has conquered all the saloons and in the course of time, if her diligent officers continue their gallant work, there will be no "blind tigers" in our midst, but as two-eyed tigers they will be caged, as it is the best place for such animals. Our women are our greatest Christian aid, and if we men do not get a move on us they will have to be given the privilege of voting and using the big stick. The rich men of today do not take under consideration half of that which is moral, just or good. Then why should we, the poorer class, allow the very foundation of prosperity to be built by us any longer? It is because these men who are rich, yet poor, have within their own hands the reins which sooner or later will turn us into slaves more than we are if we continue to sell out so cheap to them.

He that liveth in a log hut and hath his soul clean, though he may live on husks and sleep on a pallet of rags, yet is he a millionaire to be envied above the rich man who coins his gold from the life's blood of his fellows.

The future of Gainesville lies in the hands of the poorer class, and not in the hands of John D. or any other millionaire.

The University of Florida and the Normal have done more for Gainesville and Alachua county than any other present advantage.

Gainesville is the morning star of reformation in her county, and a coming metropolis of Florida, and with all her advantages, and so few disadvantages, can she not put forth one candidate for Governor for our "Land of Flowers?"

The man of whom so many of us in the West End are thinking is a man worthy of any honor which the citizens of Florida can bestow. Especially should Gainesville work for him, for he has labored so long and earnestly for them and their schools. When the old E. F. S. cried for aid in her feeble age, she was overheard by Hon. Frank Clark, who worked, as everyone knows, as long as he could to secure appropriations for her.

SPURNED SMALL TIPS

Two Similar Incidents With Very Different Endings.

A CONTRAST IN METHODS.

One of the Experiences Was in New York and the Other in Philadelphia and the Columns Left the Former With the Latter City.

"Recently I witnessed a couple of tipping incidents that I considered to be illustrative of quite an interesting difference of opinion" observed a well known citizen who gets about a good bit. "One of the occurrences took place in New York and the other in Philadelphia.

"The New York incident entered my mind almost to a disturbing point merely by force of, although, of course it was none of my business.

"An elderly, dignified, gentlemanly man who struck me as being a well cared for gentleman entered an uptown restaurant, entered a side door, found himself a comfortable seat at a table close to mine. He ordered a modest meal and a bottle of beer. As he attended himself to the meal and conversed with an very mannerly way, it seemed plain that he had entered the place chiefly for the purpose of listening to some of the latest music and that he had given his meal order as a sort of method of paying for his enjoyment of the music. The elderly man's bill was 35 cents. He placed a half dollar on the table.

"The waiter picked the half up, dropped most of the price time to a sort of [illegible] mind, and, putting two dimes from the change pocket, turned down to greet of the elderly man and began walking with a glare on his face. The elderly man [illegible] of the waiter into the pocket and pretty much as the waiter to pick up. The waiter gave the dimes one additional at all, and then he [illegible] deposit the tip once more on the table.

"The elderly man finished from where he sat with his left eye on his forehead [illegible] and [illegible] began. Anything could any that he felt the insult [illegible] humbly. Just as [illegible] up his hat from the chair he [illegible] to go out the gorgeous head waiter glided down to his table, and [illegible] him.

"I say, I heard him say in a low tone to the head waiter, who listened to him with stolid indifference, 'one of your waiters has just subjected me to a most odd insult for indignity. Ordinarily will entirely against my will but pointing to the customs which prevail in this city, I gave the waiter on his own as a sum of money amounting to just one-third the price of the food and drink of which I had partaken. Before my eyes he contemptuously threw that amount of money on the floor, where it still lies. I have summoned you to inquire if such great disrespect toward a guest has the approval of the management of this establishment?'

"The portly head waiter shrugged his shoulders with a sort of bored deprecation and without a word of reply turned his back upon the elderly man and strolled away. The elderly man arose and walked out, his face still crimson.

"The other tipping incident took place a few days later in a Chestnut street restaurant in Philadelphia. A man at the table next to mine had ordered a couple of deviled crabs and a bottle of ale. His bill was 55 cents. He gave the waiter a dollar bill. The waiter brought back a quarter and five dimes on a silver salver. The guest picked the quarter and one of the dimes from the salver. The waiter gave a grunt and shoveled the remaining dime off the salver on to the table, then walked away with a growl in his throat. The guest picked up the dime and stuffed it into his change pocket. Then he summoned another passing waiter and told this waiter that he wanted to see the manager of the restaurant at once. The manager was at the table in less than a minute. The guest told him what he had to say in a few quiet words.

"'Tell No. 19 to report here to me,' said the manager to the first passing waiter.

"No. 19, the waiter who was so far above dimes as tips that he tossed them back at the givers, appeared in a jiffy.

"'Go to the cashier and get your dime,' said the manager to the waiter. 'Then put on your hat and coat and come back here to me.'

"The waiter walked away and was back presently, with his coat on and his hat in his hand.

"'You are suspended for a week,' said the manager to the waiter. 'But before you leave I want you to apologize to this gentleman for your conduct.'

"'Oh, there's other hash houses in Philly, I guess,' said the waiter to the guests, turning to go.

Where They Were Not Bad.

A visitor who was going through the penitentiary one day turned to the warden and said:

"I suppose you have a good many bad people here?"

"Bad? Bad people here?" repeated the gray haired warden, with an air of comic surprise. "What put that into your head? There are no bad people here. Why, if they wanted to be bad we would not let them."

The warden smiled grimly and the visitor assented to the fact that the "pen" was not the place where people could afford to be bad, even if they wished. [illegible]
